

Legal notice

This notice sets out the terms on which the website at intelevate.ai (the “Website”) is made available.

1. Who operates this website

The Website is published and operated under the trading name Intelevate.ai (“Intelevate”, “we”, “us”). Intelevate supplies websites, NFC products and workflow automation to local businesses, with on-site installation in Cyprus.

For any question about this notice, about the Website, or about an order, write to hello@intelevate.ai.

2. Using the Website

Accessing or browsing the Website makes you a user of it, and means you accept the terms set out here.

You agree to use the Website and its content properly, and not for any unlawful purpose, nor in any way contrary to good faith or public order.

3. Content and intellectual property

All material on the Website — text, images, graphics, logos, icons, layout and code — belongs to Intelevate or to third parties who have authorised its use.

You may not reproduce, distribute, publish or adapt that material without written permission. Quoting a short passage with a link back to the Website is fine.

4. Demonstrations and example content

Parts of the Website show worked examples and interactive demonstrations built for fictional businesses. They are illustrations of how a setup can work. They are not records of real customers, and no real order, booking or payment is created by using them.

Prices shown are for the products described and are subject to confirmation before any order is accepted.

5. Availability and liability

We take reasonable care to keep the Website available and its content accurate, but we do not warrant that it will be uninterrupted, error-free, or free of harmful components.

To the extent permitted by law, we are not liable for loss or damage arising from use of the Website. Nothing here limits liability that cannot lawfully be limited.

6. Links to other sites

The Website links to third-party services, including WhatsApp and LinkedIn. Those services are outside our control, and we are not responsible for their content, availability or handling of your data. Their own terms and privacy notices apply.

7. Governing law

This notice is governed by applicable European Union law and the law of the jurisdiction in which Intelevate is established. Nothing in this notice removes any right you have as a consumer under the law of your own country of residence.

Last updated: 8 September 2026. This document may be revised; the version published at intelevate.ai is the current one.
